SATELLITE DEFENDANTS' JOINDER IN ROUND 3 DEFENDANTS' PROPOSAL REGARDING ORAL ARGUMENT ON MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT
CASE No. 05-CV-1114 JW
sf-2675013

1 Defendants EchoStar Satellite LLC, EchoStar Technologies Corp., and The DIRECTV
2 Group, Inc. (the “Satellite Defendants”) join in the Round 3 Defendants’ Proposal Regarding Oral
3 Argument on Its Motions for Summary Judgement of Invalidity Under 35 U.S.C. § 112 and
4 Opposition to Acacia’s Proposal, filed April 20, 2009 (Docket No. 343) (“Round 3 Defendants’
5 Proposal”). The Satellite Defendants note that in addition to the issues listed in Appendix A of 6 the Round 3 Defendants’ Proposal, the Satellite Defendants’ summary judgment briefs raise the 7 following reasons for finding Acacia’s claims invalid:

- 8 • Claims that do not include user requests claim more broadly than the specification
9 describes and thus fail the written description requirement. (Claims 41 and 45 of 10 the ’992 patent, Claims 17-19 of the ’863 patent, and Claim 11 of the ’720).
- 11 • Claims 41 and 45 of the ’992 patent lack written description because the 12 specification does not disclose the “transmission system” “storing items having 13 information in a source material library.”
- 14 • Claims 41 and 45 of the ’992 patent fail the written description and enablement
15 requirements because the specification does not disclose how the transmission
16 system gets information back from the physical items in the source material 17 library.
- 18 • Claims 17-19 of the ’863 patent fail the written description and enablement
19 requirements because the specification does not describe anything putting physical 20 items into the transmission system.
- 21 • Claim 11 of the ’720 patent is invalid because the specification does not describe 22 or enable “subscriber selectable receiving stations.”

23 The Satellite Defendants respectfully request an opportunity to be heard on the merits of each of 24 their summary judgment motions, as well as present argument on any other issues raised by the 25 Court or the parties.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: April 23, 2009
